"First Parochial School".

This house was built by Joseph Pratte old pioneer and merchant, in the year 1818 for a fur warehouse.

Later, it was sold to the Sister of Loretto and used as a school. Now the property of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

One story and attic of random ashlar-native stone work. Original roof and cornice destroyed.

Information: Rev. C.L. VanTourenhout.

HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL INFORMATION

The following information was recorded by Alexander Piaget and Charles van Ravenswaay at the time the photograph was taken:

Original owner Joseph Pratte sold the buildings to the Sisters of St. Joseph Convent in 1848.

PROJECT INFORMATION

The Piaget-van Ravenswaay Survey consists of a number of photographs, primarily of sites and structures in Missouri, which were taken before 1938 by Alexander Piaget and after that by Paul Piaget, both in conjunction with Charles van Ravenswaay. Photographs of buildings were incorporated into the HABS collection in 1985 by Laura Rupp and in 1986 by Deborah Fulton, HABS historians. A master list is available in the ~~RECORDS~~ records for MO-1800.
